Friday 3rd February

Dear Parents/Carers,

Today in our Celebration Collective Worship we celebrated Kathleen (Voyagers) for the value of wisdom, Holly (Discoverers) for the value of thankfulness, Vienna (Explorers) for the value of agape and Grace (Shooting Stars) for the value of wisdom.

Congratulations to them all.

Don't forget it is non-school uniform day on Monday to launch Children's Mental Health Week. We're asking everyone to wear clothes that make them feel comfortable and happy. No money required.

We are still hoping to catch a glimpse of some stars on Tuesday—the forecast is improving every day. Keep an eye on DoJo on Tuesday for any last minute changes.

Half term is fast approaching and I have received so much information about things that are happening during that week. I have added a lot of event posters to this newsletter from museums, sports providers and the library. There is plenty to keep everyone busy!

News from the classes:

Shooting Stars: In Shooting Stars we have all got married because we were learning about Christian weddings. Mrs Blake-Thwaite was a guest. In maths we have been doubling. Rhiannon

Explorers: In English we had to write a weather forecast but for weather from Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs. In maths we have been counting pounds and pence in Year 2 and in Year 1 we have been looking at numbers 1 to 20. In science we drew animals and wrote about if they adapt, migrate or hibernate during winter. We talked about how humans adapt by putting on warmer clothes and put our heating up. An arctic fox adapts by changing its fur to white to make sure prey can't see it in the snow. Explorers Class

Discoverers: This week in Discoverers Class we have been continuing our learning in English based on the story Escape from Pompeii. We have created expanded noun phrases to help describe the scene when Mount Vesuvius explodes. During Maths we have been consolidating our learning on length and perimeter. In PE we have been enjoying our Tag Rugby, learning about the rules and remembering to only pass backwards!

Voyagers: This week, Voyagers have been working hard on our dance practice ahead of the Dance Festival next week - we will all be really fit by the time it comes around! In class, we have continued to read The Explorer and have written Rainforest Survival Guides based on this. In maths, Year 5 have continued their work on fractions whilst Year 6 have been tackling problems involving algebra. We have also been looking at maps of our local area in geography; discussing the changes that have occurred around where we live and why this might be. We have been able to locate our houses as well as our school and other places of interest.

Sign up sheets for the Parent Consultation Meetings will be going up in the reception area on Monday. Please sign up to come and have a chat with your child/children's class teacher.

Best wishes,

Alex Blake-Thwaite
